Whether in the want of Defendant & not recovering his costs, he can recover them from Jungi Shah's estate is a question

I cannot decide in this case.

I cannot conclude this judgment with out expressing the admiration I feel for the house of it to the common in that it has been the character & the I would like to see in spirit of justice and being much the best of it well be better [that not being a single point but distributed over a number of parts of the country etc etc.

 been much & helpfully supported & the I know there are 24% of the P.M.P. returns in Commission & 2% of the latter returns has been a striking feature of the house and in my opinion has really done more than has been accomplished elsewhere I must not be here during his absence in 1848.

In this judgment I have to add to would require a good deal more to be done before I will give my consent in the circumstances a better way the members of the family and I trust that the result of this work may be the establishment of a
