WINSTON SPENCER CHURCHILL
SERVANT OF CROWN & COMMONWEALTH

A Tribute

This tribute to the Prime Minister on his eightieth birthday, edited by Sir James Marchant, K.B.E., LL.D., is the work of many illustrious hands. Within these covers lies a composite portrait drawn by some of the greatest of his colleagues and contemporaries, each enjoying some particular vantage point from which to view Mr. Churchill’s incomparable stature.

Each has written, specially for this volume, as a mark of respect, of admiration, and of affection, his personal impressions of one particular aspect of the man who stands so high above every other statesman in the world of the twentieth century.

Together these first-hand impressions make a volume which will be treasured by all who appreciate the debt of gratitude Britain and the Commonwealth owe to his long and devoted service. The contributors and the subjects of their contributions are as follows:

DR. GILBERT MURRAY
LORD CECIL
THE LATE LORD NORWICH
THE LATE LORD SIMON
LORD SAMUEL

LORD FRASER OF NORTH CAPE
SIR CHARLES WEBSTER
SIR ARTHUR MCNAUGHTY
SIR ALAN HERBERT
